Former Sweetest Wins Best in Show at Lincoln 1/2 Marathon

by Florence and the CPAP Machine

This past Sunday, three M4K Omaha growers hit the streets of Lincoln to participate in the Lincoln National Guard Half Marathon. 8th year grower Ryan Butler just missed the awards podium finishing 2004th out of 2214 male participants on race day.

Despite constant complaining about his knee, Butler was able to dig deep and finish his first ever 13-miler. "Well, despite my knee hurting, I knew I had to finish the race today. I did it for my wife, my kids, my students, and my players that I coach. I want them to know that I'm more than just a really handsome guy with a mustache. I'm capable of extraordinary things. I trained for tens of miles to get this point, and I never gave up...despite my knee hurting. My knee hurts pretty bad."

Five minutes later, 6th year grower Andrew Hubbard told The Monitor, "I didn't run my best race today. I'm still hung over from Clean Shave three days ago. Actually, I might need an IV. I'm lightheaded. Hey, do you know if there is a garbage can around here?"

Finally, former Sweetest Stache, Benny "The King" Chandler brought up the rear (that's what she said) finishing the race in 2 hours and 38 minutes. Never being one to miss an opportunity for cosplay, Benny opted to run the course in a full Spider Man suit along with his trademark red lense-less sunglasses. At the finish line, Chandler exclaimed, "What a great race. I filmed the whole thing from start to finish on Facebook Live. I'm really hoping this will boost my brand exposure to the whole world!"

The Monitor would also like to recognize the Ladies of M4K that came out to the race on Sunday. Audrey Ideus set up a Cinco De Mayo stand along the course and provided runners with refreshments including margaritas, Fireball gummy bears, and Gatorade (mixed with cherry vodka). Laura Bartlett made sure that she was at several points throughout the course to cheer on her support for the mustache runners. Tammy Mullet ran the half marathon alongside the guys and joined the runners at a post race celebration.

Stache-strology

Aquarius (January 20-February 18)- Bacon is on sale somewhere in town, go find it. Take an Uber, you are in no condition to drive.

Pisces (February 19-March 20)- Do something nice for those you love. Buy flowers for your wife or girlfriend. Just remember: your wife likes roses and your girlfriend likes tulips.

Aries (March 21-April 19)- Thank God you have a mustache because you used to be ugly. Keep the mustache after Stache Bash or you might be mistaken for a gargoyle.

Taurus (Thursdays in May)- Go ahead, have one more. We aren't ready to leave yet.

Gemini (9A-5P)- If you are even thinking about wearing black-face to Stache Bash, you better have been born with it. You are better off with Ditka.

Cancer (Every other weekend and 2 weeks in the summer)- The stars say that this is a good time to set up a date for Stache Bash. Don't even think about stealing someone's date that night. Besides the royal forest of Henry VIII, the other place that is likely to get you killed for poaching is Slowdown.

Leo (July 23- August 22)- Don't think about shaving a mustache into your chest hair, it has already been done. Don't think about shaving a mustache into your back hair, it is not allowed (see: Hitler mustache).

Virgo (August 23- September 22)- Virgo, the Virgin. It won't be long now buddy. Just let it grow in a bit more.

Libra (Football Saturdays)- If your boss is a woman, this is the perfect time to ask for a raise. All signs point to yes.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21)- Don't take your shirt off at the bar unless your name rhymes with Lorge Quivera. Develop your own schtick. You can do it, you have a mustache.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21)- Half-man, half-horse. The world is yours.

Capricorn (New Year's Eve- End of the Orange Bowl)- When your baby is born in nine months, you must call him "Bud" if he is a boy or "Stella" if she is a girl.

MY LITTLE PONY BY ELGIN BAYLOR LUMPKIN

An unprecedented challenge in the Kentucky Derby lead to the winning horse, Maximum Security, being disqualified. Owners Gary and Mary West of Omaha were obviously heartbroken and immediately pulled their horse from Preakness Stakes.

Never one to miss a fundraising opportunity, former Rookie of the Year and Sweetest Stache winner Rob Steele reached out and has successfully convinced the Wests to reconsider and still enter the 2nd leg of the Triple Crown.

Be sure to tune in May 18th to cheer on Rob and his prized pony, Lil Hustle!

ASK MUSTACHE GEORGE

My boss passed me over for a promotion, even with a 2-week stache.

What gives? Your boss is clearly intimidated by you and likely suspects mutiny eminent. Here's what you do. Arrive at the office 15 minutes before him and sit in his office, when he gets there immediately say, "get me the Anderson file". He will recognize the power shift and the promotion is yours. Then call his wife and ask her whats for dinner.

My kid wants help planning a "prom-posal."

WTF is that and what should I do? A prom-posal is where your kid needlessly humiliates themselves in order to ask someone to a meaningless high school dance. Tell your kid to get a job.

Is it true a mustache actually harms fuel economy?

Yes, because you now drive a truck or a muscle car....WITH t-tops!

Would you rather only be able to eat bacon one day a year, or not get to have any gravy with Thanksgiving dinner?

Is the gravy bacon grease? If so, I'd rather shirts be outlawed.
