Shammy's Casino - Odds & Ends

Shammy's Casino is issuing an official statement regarding recent discoveries in Nevada. "Shammy's Casino is not associated with the recent discoveries at Lake Mead. The area is under my cousin twice removed Putzy's management. Shammy's Casino has no knowledge of events discovered there. Additionally, Shammy's Casino condemns the dumping of foreign materials into our nation's waterways!"

2022 Mustache Melee brackets were recently announced at Mustache Trivia Night and offered four interestingly specific regionals: New Blue Tux, Former Sweetest, Stachey Winners, and The Leftovers. Each group look to offer some mighty fine first round matchups. The Shammy Casino staff have run analytics over the past 72 hours to bring you a quick recap on these regionals.

The New Blue Tux group seem to stress the friendships of the recent 5-year selleck class. But what this 5-year class lacks in Stacheys (which, for the record, are zero won among the group), they make up in enthusiasm and heart. The youthful winner of this regional will battle the winner of the Former Sweetest regional.

Four former Sweetest Staches will be quite the sight to see, battling it out to earn a spot in the quarter finals. Best be there early folks - you won't want to miss this. Shammy's Casino realizes that the challenge doesn't stop once one winner moves forward, as they'll go toe to toe with the New Blue Lux regional winner - youth vs. experience.

The Leftovers regional is going to be one of the most difficult regionals to predict a winner as each Melee contender offers a unique set of skills (see next page). Depending on the gauntlet of challenges they are tasked with, this regional has two contestants with strong knowledge in adult beverages, one who knows his way around diapers, and the fourth who has mastered live streaming before it became mainstream. But the Melee Challenge draw is anticipated to have a great impact on The Leftovers regional for sure.

The Stachey Winners regional offers some of the most recognizable in the mustache realm. A two-year removed Sweetest and 2021 Melee Champion goes up against the defending Most Fundraisingest. The reigning Rookie of the Year will take on a former Nastiest Stache. Will Team B Moore end up finishing second to Team GG? Will Jaymes Sime pass the pre-melee mustache doping test? We are keeping a close eye on this one, folks. See you Thursday.

M4K Dealt a Heavy Blow After Loss of Top Fundraiser

by Ewe Dew Mei

Pushing for a new record every year is never easy, and the path to go beyond 2021's $835K was always going to be an uphill climb. That path seems to have gotten a little steeper as Dirty Thirty member, and perennial Top 20 grower Tom Rosencrans has apparently thrown in the towel.

In a leaked text obtained by The Monitor crew, Rosiepants states he's "probably done fundraising for good. Enjoy the rest of the ride, gents."

Having just updated his Facebook profile to include a slew of six slightly-similar-sized-sexy-soaking Sellecks, our crew was nothing less than shocked by this development.

After further texts were leaked however, it seems hard to blame him. I mean, c'mon. If there was ever a nicer reason to hang your hat, we've never seen it.

BEST PLACES TO STACHE ACROSS THE STATES

Prior to 2020, it was hard to imagine anyone ever willingly leaving the G.O.A.T. city to ever mustache. However, improvements in video streaming and more lenient work-from-home policies have opened up the country to growers willing to set up shop elsewhere. With that in mind, the Monitor crew assessed all 50 states and listed the top choices for a nomad with a mustache.

Kansas City, MO: Andy Reid, NASCAR, and enough BBQ to turn your stache a rich burgundy. Plus you're 4 hours from Anheuser-Buschhhhhhh, 3 hours from Stache Bash, and maybe only 2 hours from Jabrone.

Nashville, TN: Current petition to rename to Stacheville. Since this has not made the ballot yet, Nashville remains second best... for now.

Minneapolis, MN: Thriving M4K chapter in the early stages, so you can immediately be somebody. Friendly folks that love to drink, and a less annoying accent than Chicago. Main drawback is the relentless bitter cold that could can shrink even the girthiest of stache.

Portland, OR: Mild weather, more nature than you can shake a stick at, and more craft breweries than nature for when you're sick of shaking sticks.

Beaverton, OR: Maybe they have a ton. Maybe not. But it's the next best thing to Portland.

Clackamas, OR: It's the next best thing to Beaverton.

Honorable mention - San Diego, CA: Picture the best weather day you've ever had in Omaha, and then follow it up with 364 more of the same. The drawbacks here are, for some reason, southern Californians don't know how to spell mustache, and the wicked stache tan lines once you do shave. Best just to keep it year round.

Dishonorable mention - Beatrice, NE. What. A. Craphole. Maybe if you need a new Chevy, Buick, or GMC and prefer open mouth kisses from your salesman. Otherwise, best to avoid Hwy 77 completely.
